Two Notable Weddings In Church Hill Vicinity
This Week.

Miss Susie E Lander and Mr. Emmett Roy Cayce were united in marriage last evening, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Lander, near Church Hill.

The parlors were prettily and appropriately decorated with flowers and ferns. The wedding march was played by Mrs. E. W. Barnett. The young couple were joined in wedlock by Rev. J. L. Kilgore, of the Methodist church, at 8:30 o'clock. After the ceremony the bridal party proceeded to the home of the groom's brother, Mr. Robert Cayce, not far away, and partook of an elegant and sumptuous wedding dinner.

The young couple will be at home at the groom's farm near this city. He has recently built a new house in which he will go to housekeeping with his pretty bride.

The groom is an enterprising and prosperous young farmer, a son of the late G. R. Cayce.

The bride is an exceptionally attractive and charming young lady. She possesses unusual beauty of a brunette type and is as amiable and lovable as she is beautiful.

They have many friends who wish them much happiness.

The opening sermon was preached by Rev. Edward Bryant Landis, of Paducah, on the subject "The Barren Fig Tree."

With Judge W. P. Black in the chair, Presbytery was constituted with prayer by Rev. A. J. Thomson, and Rev. Edward B. Landis was elected moderator by acclamation.

Judge Black, the retiring moderator, gracefully introduced Mr. Landis, who assumed the chair.

Rev. Dr. Darby, Southern Secretary of the Board of Education of the Presbyterian church, delivered a splendid address in which he called the attention of Presbytery to the needs of the educational work of the church and to the breadth of the church's work in educational lines.

Yesterday morning devotional exercises were held by Rev. J. N. Andre. This was followed by a business session. Report of Committees on Church Election, College Board and of the Pastor Evangelist were heard and there was a sermon by Rev. T. P. Hollifield at 11 o'clock. Rev. R. H. Anthony addressed the body on Foreign Missions. The afternoon was taken up with another business session and in hearing reports from the various committees.

Last night's session was devoted principally to Ladies Missionary service. An interesting address was delivered by Mrs. Ella Goodnight.

John Made a Hit.

Judge Feland is the special judge of Graves circuit court and all who have seen him will say that this a splendid likeness. He is presiding in place of the regular Judge R. J. Bugg, who is in Texas for his health. Judge Feland is the judge while on the bench as every one who has been present in court will testify. He has given entire satisfaction as far as can be ascertained and the people of Graves county are more than pleased with him. The Messenger can find no objection to Judge Feland, though he be a Republican.—Mayfield Messenger.
